C. Sharov

CENTURION 1981
South Windsor High School
South Windsor, CT

Make new friends,
But keep the old;

Those are silver,
These are gold.

New-made friendships,
Like new wine,

Age will mellow
And refine.

Friendships that Have stood the test

Time and change —
Are surely best;

Brow may wrinkle,
Hair grow gray;

Friendship never Knows decay.

For 'mid old friends,
Tried and true,

Once more we reach
And youth renew

But old friends,
Alas! may die;

New friends must
Their place supply

Cherish friendships In your breast

New is good,
But old is best;

Make new friends,
But keep the old;

Those are silver,
These are gold.

WITH MUCH APPRECIATION AND DEEP RESPECT . . .

The Class of 1981 dedicates its yearbook to a very special man, Mr. David Paul White. Mr. White has been a true friend and a devoted helper. A teacher who has had a profound effect upon us all, he has been an inspiration. He is someone who has earned our trust, confidence, and laughter. For all the good times in the past and the hopes of the future, we wish for Mr. White health, luck, and happiness always.

We Remember

Robert E. Lee

Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you.

It was but yesterday we met in a dream.

You have sung to me in my aloneness,
and I of your longings have built a tower in the sky.

But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over, and it is no longer dawn.

The noontide is upon us and our half waking has turned to fuller day, and we must part.

If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more, we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song.

And if our hands should meet in another dream we shall build another tower in the sky.

Way we were.

Scattered pictures
Of the smiles
We left behind,

Smiles we Gave to one Another for the Way we were.

Can it be that
It was all
So simple then, or
Has time rewritten
Ev'ry line?

If we had the Chance to Do it all again,
Tell me would we?
Could we? . . .

*Our memories of yesterday
Will last a lifetime
We'll take the best, forget the rest
And someday we'll find
These are the best of times.*
